Main presenters

Hugh Mackay

Hugh Mackay has spent 50 years listening to people, gauging the collective mood of Australia and publishing the results in reports and books. He has commented on many topics, ranging from the place of women in society, to the information deluge and the spiritual state of the nation.

John Cleary

John Cleary has been described as 'one of Australia's leading commentators on religious affairs'. He is a member of the ABC's specialist Religion unit and is often heard as a commentator on Religious issues for ABC Radio and Television.

Andrew West

Andrew West is a long-term journalist, including stints with the Sun-Herald and The Australian, and has been a political speechwriter. He is currently a reporter for the Sydney Morning Herald. He is the author of Inside the Lifestyles of the Rich and Tasteful, a look at class and politics in Australia.
